

Leading the way to race equality

A guide to good practice

A Network for
Black Professionals
Publication

Contents

Leading the way to race equality.
A guide to good practice.

Published by NBP

Wolverhampton Science Park,
Glaisher Drive, Wolverhampton,
West Midlands. WV10 9RU

www.nbp.org.uk

ISBN- 978-0-9567933-0-0

Section 1

- 3 Foreword
- 4 About the Guide
- 5 Who is the Guide for?
- 5 Using the Guide

Section 2

- 6 Tackling Race Inequalities Fund
- 7 The TRIF monies were linked to six main TRIF themes

Section 3

- 8 The Network for Black Professionals (NBP)
- 9 The Black Leadership Initiative (BLI®)

Section 4

- 11 A Fair Society?

Section 5

- 14 Intercultural competencies, National Occupational Standards, and self-assessment
- 15 Intercultural competencies
- 16 National Occupational Standards for Intercultural Working
- 17 The business benefits of using the National Occupational Standards
- 18 Standards for working with people from different countries or diverse cultures
- 20 Self-assessment
- 24 Ten points to ponder if your organisation is working with BAME groups
- 26 Ten points to ponder if you are working with customers/service-users from BAME backgrounds

Section 6

- 28 Case Studies. Leading the way: effective intercultural working in action
- 62 Case Studies Leading the way: personal testimonies
- 66 What do the testimonials tell us?

Section 7

- 67 Keeping up momentum
- 69 Actions to take

Section 8

- 70 Acknowledgements
- 72 Acronym Buster
- 73 Sources of information and advice
- 74 Useful reports and publications